

stuff me.

a very abby christmas

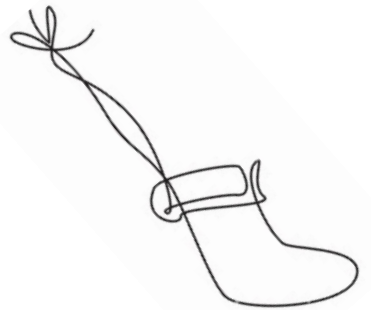

2023

To all of my favorite holiday elves,

Since it's been a busy year for us all & frankly, shopping is not fun, this year's list is intended to make gifting me easier than it already is. I know you're thinking, "Impossible! She still has a handwritten note I sent to her to camp as a child" and you're right – I prefer to give gifts, but I am also a sucker for attention and compliments – Write me a poem about the beauty and joy that comes from cotton candy and Santa can skip a stop.

I've found things I'd love from four different and easily accessible places. If I'm not on your list this year, absolutely okay. This is intended to be helpful. And fun. And nostalgic. And impressive.

xx,
